Getting into the act

Wareham native and BU alum Geena Davis gave some local girls a chance to see how the Los Angeles media world works — something they've been studying back in Boston. The Oscar winner hosted girls from local journalism mentoring program Teen Voices at a recent LA conference. On hand were student/peer leaders Tanasia Barboza-White and Adanma Ude, executive director Jenny Amory, and program director Saun Green.
